County Spotlight Photo Contest April 4 – 18th, 2019

NYSAC is hosting a photo contest as a part of National County Government Month!

Five winning photographs will be chosen for publication in the spring edition of NYSAC News magazine. Accompanying each photograph will be a short highlight of the county where it was taken.

You can submit any number of photos taken on any device, so long as the photos were taken in your county, you have permission to use the photos, and the photos meet the requirements listed below.

Qualifications

Photos can include any shot that best represents your county – including but not limited to: landmarks, events, scenic, candid, etc.

Each Submission should include

- Photo(s)
- Date, county, and location
- Name of photographer
- A short caption
- Entrant's contact information (email+ / phone number)

Photo(s) must have been taken within the past two years, and entrants are responsible for acquiring consent and/or releases necessary to permit use of photo(s) by NYSAC.

By submitting photo(s), entrants agree to grant NYSAC the right and permission to use, re-use, publish, and re-publish the photographs related to the contest; in printed and electronic publications, and in all media including illustration, promotion, art, advertising, news, informational and educational purposes.

Submissions

Deadline for entries: Thursday, April 18th, 2019, 11:59 PM

Submit your entries via email attachments to kpierce@nysac.org

Good luck!
