Facebook Live Town Halls

Dedicated to:

New York State Association of Counties Presented By:

Jon SummersSummers Strategies

Why Facebook Live

INFORMATION

People are looking for information and transparency

CONNECTION

69% of Americans are on Facebook

OTHER OPTIONS

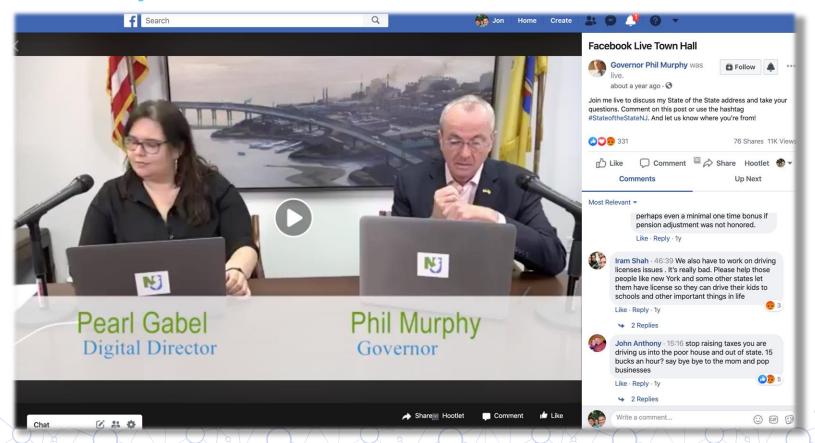

YouTube, Periscope, IBM Video (Ustream), LiveStream

Identify your goal

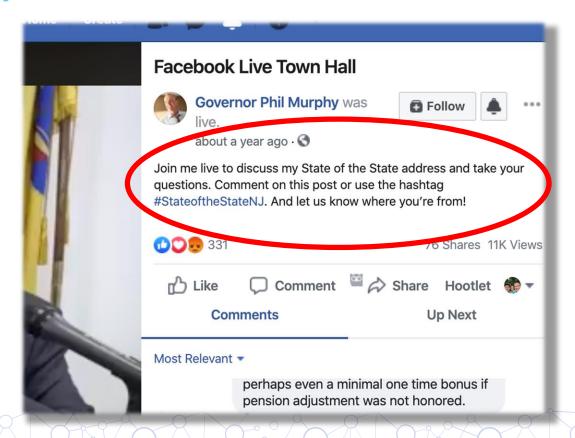

Write talking points, not a script

Message

Case Study – Best Practices

Case Study – Best Practices

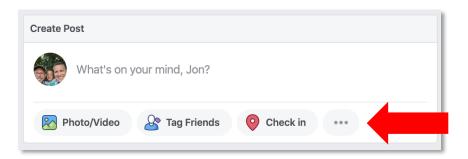

Day & time in every post

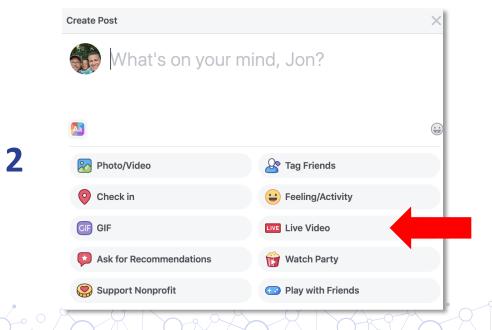

Media Advisory

Press Release

_

Setting Up

Looking & Sounding Great

01	DRESS THE PART Consider your environment, topic, brand	05	BACKDROP Everything sends a message
02	CAMERA POSITION Should be eye-level & steady	06	SHUT THE DOOR Prevent pet/child disruptions
03	CENTER YOURSELF Can be a little to the side, based on visuals	07	BE HEARD Keep your mic very close
04	LIGHTING No backlighting or harsh shadows	08	UPGRADE YOUR CAMERA Either good web cam or external camera

GOING LIVE

Deliver brief remarks

Take questions in the comment section

Acknowledge people by name

TIPS/DO'S & DON'TS

- You are on the record and everything on the internet lives forever
- Don't argue with trolls
- Don't just take the easy questions
- Don't be afraid to be human
- Do encourage people to follow you on all your social media channels
- Do encourage people to contact you directly
- Do practice before you hold your first town hall

Thank You!

Summers Strategies

www.SummersStrategies.com 301.589.6678 Jon@SummersStrategies.com

