

Dear Attendee,

For additional accommodation options, please contact any of the hotels listed below. Each option is in or around Downtown Syracuse, offering convenient and comfortable lodging choices. Staying at another hotel will not affect your conference experience in any way.

Please note that hotel reservations are separate from the rates listed on our conference registration form. You must book your room directly with your chosen hotel at the rate they provide. Alternative hotels are not affiliated with NYSAC's conference rates, and their pricing may differ. Hotels will require a credit card for reservations and/or payment.

Meal tickets can be purchased easily through the online conference registration system. You may pay by credit card or check or request an invoice to your county. Staying at a hotel other than the conference hotel does not limit your access to any conference sessions, meals, or receptions. Simply pre-register for the meal package of your choice and complete payment online or on-site. Meal package pricing is the same for all attendees, regardless of where you stay.
